

What is the PTO?

Contributed by Ivy League PTO
Last Updated Monday, 12 November 2007

The PTO is the Parent Teacher Organization. We are parents and teachers just like you who volunteer our time to enhance the educational experience of every child in our school. We are an independent organization and do not belong to any state or national affiliation, or support any political platforms. We keep all of the funds that we raise for our school rather paying state or national dues/fees.